WEBSITE OF THE WEEK: <http://www.edmundrice.org> October 1, 2008 marked the first anniversary of the Oceania Province of the Christian Brothers. It was formed from the amalgamation of the four Australian provinces and the New Zealand province as well as the regions of Papua New Guinea and the Philippines. It also includes the Cook Islands and East Timor. The province website has been revamped in recent times and includes a number of new features including a forum. It is currently displaying a message from Province Leader, Br Vince Duggan to Brothers, staff and supporters marking the first anniversary and urging them to follow the spirit of the Congregation's Chapter in Munnar, India earlier this year in forging a new identity for the order and its wider Edmund Rice Network.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC: There has been some interest in people becoming a Catholic and a new programme will begin in a couple of weeks. Please see Fr. Mick or the Parish Office to have your name included to be contacted or <http://www.adelaide.catholic.org.au/sites/OfficeforWorship/adult-catechumenate-rcia>
