The site shows how it is living out its goals. The site also contains the popular Liturgy Lines columns often featured in CathNews and other publications and written by the Commission's education officer, Elizabeth Harrington. An archive of these columns can be found on the site.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Father's Day 'Fathers are pivotal to conveying the true image of a loving God the Father to their children. Jesus calls his Father "Abba" which can be translated as "daddy" and he highlights through parables that God cares for each one of us as a father cares for his children. Can a child understand the tender, unconditional love of God if their own experience of their father suggests something different? Fathers have an amazing vocation to be the kind of "Abba" that God is to all of us.'
